

Rebecca Hughes

International Dressage Rider and Trainer

Rebecca is a British Dressage listed judge and is renowned for having an excellent eye for finding and starting talented horses. Alongside this Rebecca is firmly establishing herself as a very effective trainer of all levels including Young Riders and Eventers. She holds regular clinics all over the country.

Apart from huge success sourcing and competing the young horses, Rebecca has enjoyed many opportunities to represent Great Britain Internationally at Small Tour Level. She was placed in Sydney in 2005 and again in Japan (whilst pregnant with daughter Ruby!) in 2007.

In 2008 Rebecca won the Prix St George Freestyle National Championship on Felicity Scott's Shining Light and went on to be 2nd at Hartpury International having just missed top spot on collective marks to the infamous Carl Hester! Over the following three years Rebecca and Shining Light were consistently ranked in the top 7 British Small Tour rankings and were placed in the top 10 at Hickstead Internationals, Hartpury Internationals, Hansbeke in Belgium and at the National Championships at PSG and Intermediaire 1.

Rebecca then took over the reins of Lorraine Sattin's super talented Rubini Royale. Starting at Medium level she has trained him through the levels to Grand Prix. They had very successful placings Internationally at Small Tour and scored over 67% in their first Grand Prix at Vale View High Profile Show. Plans are to progress to International Grand Prix.

If you are interested in the Rebecca Hughes Dressage Clinics at Adlington Equestrian, contact Nikki on 07779 725943